The Life Of Samuel Johnson Vol. 2
James Boswell

The Life Of Samuel Johnson Vol. 2

Boswell's famous work on the life of his admired friend Johnson, the formidable poet, essayist, moralist, literary critic, biographer, editor and lexicographer, is a milestone in the development of biographical writing, a treasure−house of Johnson's witticisms and opinions, and a window on his social circle that is packed with incidental detail of 18th−century life and concerns.

This second of four volumes covers the years 1764−1776. (Summary by Philippa.)
